

Inter-Cultural Social and Education Services Inc.

For Immediate Release

Press Conference at Herald Community Center on June 20, 2007

Inter-Cultural Social and Education Services, Inc. (ISESI) is presenting a 2nd Annual Gateway to Senior Services Fair at Langley Senior Center in City of Monterey Park on June 23, 2007 from 9am to 1pm. The Fair is for non-English speaking seniors and their families residing in the Los Angeles multi-ethnic San Gabriel Valley communities.

Various government agencies and private health care organizations will be present to offer information to participants and answer questions about available health care and social services to seniors in the area. Participants will have an opportunity to speak one-on-one with representatives from these service providers and to learn more about other available resources.

We would like to invite you to a press conference at Chinese Herald Community Center, 715 E. Mission Road, San Gabriel, California on June 20, 2007 at 11am. Light refreshment will be provided.

Please RSVP us by phone at (626)484-6700 and at email address info@isesila.org. Our website is www.isesila.org.

ISESI is a non-profit, one-stop resource and referral organization. Our mission is to disseminate educational information on health and social services to the seniors and their families residing in the Los Angeles multi-ethnic San Gabriel Valley communities.