Dear Friends:

Congratulations on entering your fourth year of service to the community. It is a pleasure to recognize Inter-Cultural Social and Education Services, Inc. for the multitude of healthcare services you provide to seniors.

The wealth of health care resources and opportunities you provide are a prime example of ways in which the community can work together to educate seniors about their health. Partnerships between public and private organizations are the foundations of our communities; ISESI has been able to develop great collaborations, which has greatly benefited seniors who have limited English proficiency. Inter-Cultural Social and Education Services enables many seniors to find the materials and programs they need to live healthy lives. Your work is invaluable to the many seniors and their families who speak limited or no English at all.

Seniors are a top priority for me and I am proud to support your organization's work. Best wishes for continued success in building great community partnerships!

Sincerely,
